DETAILED ACTION

1. The indicated allowability of claims 1 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Collin 6,482,400 B1. Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1 and 3-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

More specifically, claims 1, 11 and 18 set forth the components and amounts of the sizing composition but fail to clearly state what the basis for the percentage by weight is. For example, it is not clear if the amounts are with respect to a total solids basis or an aqueous basis. Also, the percentages do not add up to 100%. It is not clear if there are other components or if the balance is water. Therefore, the metes and bounds for which patent protection is being sought are not clear.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1774

5. Claims 1, 3, 7-9, 11, and 13-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Collin 6,482,400 B1.

Collin discloses a coating composition comprising .01% to 60% by weight of a polyether based polyurethane (column 2, lines 46-54), 0% to 15% by weight of a film forming polymer that can be polyamide (column 17, lines 49-67), 0.01% to 20% by weight of a cationic lubricant (column 16, lines 24-30), and 0.1% to 20% by weight of a non-ionic lubricant (column 17, lines 1-5). Collin does not teach the inclusion of a silane coupling agent however he does disclose that cohesion agents can be added. It would have been obvious to the skilled artisan at the time the invention was made to modify the composition of Collin by including a silane coupling agent, in amounts within the instant claimed range, to promote sufficient adhesion of the filler materials to the base composition. As to the composition being compatible with a phenolic pultrusion process, Collin teaches a composition that is substantially similar to that contemplated by applicants. In the absence of factual evidence to the contrary, it is the position of the examiner that the same composition necessarily has the same properties. Regarding the preamble language of "sizing composition", the prior art teaches a composition also and it is the examiner's position that this language is drawn to the future intended use of said composition, but does not serve to distinguish the present claims over the prior art.

Accordingly, the disclosure of Collin would have rendered obvious the invention claimed in present claims 1, 3, 7-9, 11, and 13-16.

No claims are allowed.
